Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Sunnier for most tomorrow, but scattered showers will continue for most parts of the UK. These heaviest in the north and west with a risk of hail and thunder. Some longer outbreaks of rain are possible in the far south of England through the morning. Windy, especially across the south.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Another day of sunny spells and scattered showers on Thursday. Showers always heaviest across the north and west but easing somewhat later along with the winds. Rain developing across southern areas on Friday, often heavy leading to the potential of some disruption in places. Brighter further north with scattered showers.
