++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be a dry but misty and cloudy start to the day across eastern parts, with a band of rain pushing in from the west. There will be some heavy bursts of rain at times but it will clear more quickly than today. Winds will increase into the afternoon but it will feel mild with temperatures up on today.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

The unsettled, wet and windy weather will continue into the weekend with more low pressure systems moving in from the Atlantic. The best of any drier spells will be in the evenings and it will continue to feel mild throughout.
