++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
It will be cloudy, wet and windy across northern, especially northwestern, parts today, with some heavy rain later. However, it should become largely dry again overnight. Mainly dry and breezy elsewhere today, with variable cloud and some sunny spells, and fairly mild. Largely dry with some clear spells tonight too.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:
It will be cloudy with the odd spot of drizzle over western parts, especially western Scotland, on Sunday, but elsewhere should be largely dry with sunny spells. Generally cloudy but mostly dry on Monday. The northwest will be rather windy with rain though. Mild.
