

Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0700 on Friday 06 Jul 2007

++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
Much of Scotland, parts of N.Ireland and N.England will see fairly cloudy skies with showers or longer outbreaks of rain at times, but further south it will be brighter, and here just a scattering of showers. The driest and brightest weather will be reserved for the southwest. It will be a windy day though.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

Northern parts will see a few showers on Saturday, and N.Scotland could be quite wet. Southern parts will have a dry and fine day with lighter winds. Most places will be dry on Sunday too though there is the threat of a few sharp showers later.
