++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Southeast England should have a dry and bright morning, but otherwise it will be cloudy with outbreaks of rain, with snow on high ground. It should brighten up in Scotland and Northern Ireland during the afternoon to allow some sunny spells, but wintry showers are also expected.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:
Rain in Southeast England could turn to sleet or wet snow before clearing during Wednesday morning. Northern Scotland will be windy with periods of snow. Elsewhere it will be cold and rather cloudy with occasional showers, which will turn wintry on high ground.
