Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:

A windy but brighter day across Scotland, sunny spells and showers, most showers in the west. Stormy in the far north especially Shetland. Elsewhere across the UK, windy, cloudy and very mild. Most central, southern and eastern areas mainly dry, but with further spells of rain across Wales and northwest England, some heavy and prolonged especially over high ground.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

Scotland and Northern Ireland breezy and colder with sunny spells and showers, most of the showers over western Scotland. England and Wales cloudy with rain on Friday clearing to sunny spells and mainly dry weather for Saturday.
