Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
A cool start to the day with northwesterly breezes and a few showers in the north and west. Then a fine day for most with bright or sunny spells and only isolated showers in the north and west. However, a band of heavy rain will spread to Northern Ireland during evening.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:

A wet day in central and northern areas with occasionally heavy rain, but drier and brighter in the south, and also drier in the far north of Scotland. Then mainly cloudy with heavy rain or showers in all parts on Thursday. Mild and misty with coastal fog in west.
