Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It's set to be a cool and breezy day for many with a good deal of cloud. There will also be some showery rain around, which will gradually push eastwards. Drier and brighter conditions will feed from the west, allowing for some late sunny spells to develop.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Thursday may get off to a chilly start, with some scattered showers in the north and east. However once these clear it's set to be a fine day with easing winds and some warm, sunny spells. Friday will be largely fine for many, but wet weather is going to spread from the northwest.
