++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Many places will start rather cloudy, mild and windy with a little light rain or drizzle in places. However, brighter conditions with some sunshine, will spread southwards to all but the far southwest by evening. It will become cooler and fresher with the brighter weather, but brisk winds should ease.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

After a frosty night Sunday night, Monday will be mostly dry with some sunshine, but turning cloudier in the west later. Tuesday will be cloudier with some rain spreading eastwards, and it will become milder again, but also rather windy.
