

Storm Aileen

Storm Aileen was officially named on 12 September 2017 and impacted parts of the UK on 12 -13 September 2017.

It brought strong winds and heavy rain overnight and into the morning rush hour causing disruption to roads and railways.

Storm Aileen - Maximum gust speeds (mph)

Site name	Area	Max gust (mph)
Needles	Isle of Wight	83
Mumbles	Wales	74
Avonmouth	Avon	70
Pembrey Sands	Wales	67
High Bradfield	Yorkshire	67
Heathrow	London	63
Aberdaron	Wales	62

Many areas of England and Wales saw winds between 55 – 65 mph with the strongest gusts recorded on the Isle of Wight (83 mph) and Mumbles, Wales (74 mph). Across the north of England, over 7,000 homes were left without power.