++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
Rather cold and windy today with sunny intervals and scattered heavy showers, along with a risk of hail and thunder in the north and west. However, a few southern and eastern parts will remain dry. Tonight, chilly with clear spells, although showers will continue to affect many areas.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

On Thursday many of us will experience either showers or a longer spell of rain, although there will also be some sunshine. Some central, southern and eastern areas will remain dry, but it will feel rather cold. Friday, cold and windy with sunshine and showers, and snow on northern hills.
