Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be a bright and dry day with plenty of sunshine for Wales, central and southern England. It should also be drier and brighter for Northern Ireland and Scotland. Parts of northern and eastern England may experience some patchy cloud with the odd spot of showery rain at first, but still warm with some sunshine.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:
It will stay dry and bright for much of the UK during Friday with plenty of sunshine and gentle winds. Western parts should stay largely dry and bright during Saturday, but increasing cloud amounts for eastern areas and also Northern Ireland later.
