++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Thunderstorms and longer periods of heavy, thundery rain will move northeastwards across many parts of the United Kingdom during Tuesday. It will be cloudier than of late, although there will be some sunny spells in southwestern parts. The warm, humid weather will continue and it will be hot again on some parts of the southeast.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:

The weather will remain unsettled with sunny spells and showers across the UK.
Heavy, thundery showers are likely in eastern and northeastern areas on Wednesday, but by Thursday showers should be less intense and more scattered.
Temperatures will continue above average in many areas.
