Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Mist and fog over Scotland and Northern Ireland will clear to leave a dry day with broken cloud, although some patchy rain will return to the Western Isles by evening. For England and Wales, some pleasant bright or sunny spells will develop after a rather cloudy start, although perhaps a little drizzle in the southeast at first. Winds light.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:
It will be rather cloudy at times with the risk of some patchy rain or drizzle in Northern Ireland, Scotland and Northern England. However, eastern and southern parts will be mainly dry and bright with some pleasant sunny spells developing.
