Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
There will be showers or longer spells of rain across much of England and Wales, tomorrow, turning heavy and thundery at times. There is a risk of some localised surface water issues, mainly across the southeast. It will feel cool under the cloud and rain for many places. Drier and brighter across the north.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:
Wednesday will be a breezy day for many with very wet and cool conditions in southeastern areas. Elsewhere, it will be drier and brighter with the odd shower. Thursday will see a warmer and more settled spell of weather across the UK with some sunny spells.
