Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Overnight mist, fog and low cloud will clear in the morning to leave much of England and Wales with a fine, warm and mostly sunny day although mist and low cloud may linger on some southern and eastern coasts, and with sunshine turning increasingly hazy during the afternoon. For Scotland and Northern Ireland, a dry, bright start in many areas, some hazy sunshine, but with cloud thickening steadily to bring rain to the far north by lunchtime and most other areas during the afternoon.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:
Continuing changeable with further rain at times but some drier and sunnier spells as well.
