++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Western and northern areas will be generally rather cloudy tomorrow with some rain or drizzle at times; but most central, eastern and south eastern areas will be mainly dry and fine with bright or sunny intervals. It will turn very warm again in the brighter spots.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Heavy rain, with the risk of some thundery downpours will push west across many parts on Thursday and Thursday night, after a bright and warm start in the east. On Friday, fresher weather with sunshine and scattered showers will have spread to most parts.
