++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It'll be a cloudy start with patchy rain for many, this may be heavy at times, particularly in Wales. Behind this, the cloud will start to break up allowing some sunshine to poke through but there may also be isolated showers around. It will feel warm and humid for most.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:
Southern parts will have the best of the weather on Sunday with generally dry and bright conditions, however feeling cooler than previous days. In the north there'll be frequent, sometimes heavy showers. A band of rain will move across southern parts on Monday, with a few showers in the north.
