Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Mainly cloudy with spells of rain over southern England and Wales, perhaps heavy, especially over southwest England. Drier and brighter in central and northern UK with sunny spells after a chilly start and early fog patches clear. A few morning showers in northern Scotland.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:
Remaining mostly cloudy with rain or drizzle at times across the south. Brighter and cooler in the north with some patchy mist and fog each morning. During Wednesday rain will start to edge further north and east later in the day as winds increase from the south.
