Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will remain generally cloudy with outbreaks of rain across parts of northeast Scotland. Elsewhere, a mixture of sunshine and scattered showers is likely, some of these becoming heavy in eastern areas during the afternoon. Further south, some more prolonged heavy rain is possible across southern and southeastern England.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Thursday will be mostly dry across England and Wales, just the odd light shower, Scotland and Northern Ireland seeing further rain or showers. On Friday, thickening cloud and outbreaks of rain will spread from the west to most parts, accompanied by strong to gale southwesterly winds.
