++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be a windy day across Northern Ireland and western Scotland with some rain at times. After a bright start, rain will also feed in across other northern and western areas later in the day. Elsewhere, there will be another dry day with some warm sunshine and fairly light winds.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:
Any remaining rain will clear south-eastwards on Tuesday, leaving most places dry and bright, but some blustery showers will follow into the northwest. It will be mainly dry and settled for most places on Wednesday, although it will remain breezy with patchy rain in the far north.
