

Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1945 on Tuesday 08 Jul 2014

++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Much of the UK will be dry and bright with the best of the sunshine in the west.
It will become cloudy and increasingly windy in eastern England with rain arriving later and a risk of gales on the coast.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

A band of cloud and occasionally heavy rain will edge westwards on Thursday.
However, it will be brighter either side of this band. Friday will start rather cloudy, with patchy rain in the west, then becoming brighter across central and eastern parts but with a risk of heavy, thundery showers later. Feeling warm and humid in the east and southeast.
