++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Mostly dry with plenty of morning sunshine, although scattered light showers will affect southeast England. More cloud and a few showers are expected over Scotland and N.Ireland. Sunny spells and scattered showers generally in the afternoon, with the driest and sunniest conditions across Wales and southwest England. Light winds.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Mostly dry and bright on Thursday, with just a few scattered showers, most likely in the east. Largely fine in the east on Friday, but cloud and perhaps some showery rain will spread across western parts, probably reaching the east later in the day. Temperatures near normal with mostly light winds.
