++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Much of the UK will see significantly drier and brighter conditions than of late, with sunny spells felt widely. Sunshine will be coupled with a few showers in central and southeastern parts, although these showers will be mainly light and move through on the breeze. Meanwhile, northwestern areas will become increasingly cloudy ahead of a little rain arriving later on.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:

Cloud and rain will continue southeastwards on Friday, replaced by drier and brighter conditions with sunshine and showers. Saturday will start chilly, leading into a mainly dry and fine day, although the far north will be breezy with some showers.
