 Valid for Broadcast at 2159 **

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Southern areas will start dry with sunny intervals, but much of Scotland, Northern Ireland and northern England already rather cloudy with scattered showers. Showers will develop more widely across England during the day, some locally heavy and prolonged, especially in the north. Temperatures will be near or a little below normal, and feeling cool across the south in the strong winds.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:

On Sunday, more sunshine and showers, the showers mostly in the north and west, and some places staying dry. On Monday, light winds and just isolated showers. Feeling warmer with the winds mostly light.
