Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Heavy rain will affect many northern parts of the United Kingdom with snow over Scottish hills and mountains. Southern parts will be rather cloudy with patchy light rain for many. The best of any brighter weather will be in eastern parts of England, and it will become warm where any sunny spells develop. It will be windy in all areas.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:
There will be sunny spells and showers each day. Showers will be most frequent in northern and northeastern areas, with southern and western parts seeing the best of any sunshine. Becoming chilly at night with a frost forming in places.
