++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Occasional cloud and showery light rain will move southwards into northern England, the north Midlands and Wales during the day. Meanwhile Scotland and Northern Ireland will turn brighter, but cooler with some showers, occasionally wintry over Scottish Highlands. However, it should remain drier, brighter and warmer in southern England.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

It will be fairly cloudy for most on Monday with light winds, sunny intervals, and isolated showers. However, it will feel colder and breezier in northern Scotland with perhaps a few wintry showers over higher ground. Drier and brighter for most on Tuesday, but still some showers in the far north.
