Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Patchy low cloud across some eastern areas will lift, then most places will be dry with some hazy sunshine, and it will feel fairly warm. However, Northern Ireland will be cloudy with rain for much of the time, and the far west of Wales, England and Scotland will be rather cloudy with some showery rain. Later in the day, this rain will start to edge eastwards into some central areas. It will be rather windy.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

It will be rather unsettled with rain or showers, but with some sunshine too. It will continue rather warm, but will be windy at times.
