++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be a cloudy start across the UK, with outbreaks of occasionally heavy rain spreading east through the day. This will then be replaced by a mixture of sunshine and showers, some of which are likely to be heavy and thundery across northern parts. It will also be a windy day, particularly across the south.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:
It will remain cool, unsettled and, at times, windy, with northern parts generally rather cloudy with outbreaks of occasionally heavy and persistent rain. Southern parts are likely to be somewhat brighter, but there will still be showers or longer spells of rain at times.
