++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Southern and eastern parts of the UK will be largely cloudy but dry with occasional bright or sunny spells expected. Elsewhere will be mostly cloudy with outbreaks of light rain and drizzle at times, most frequently over west-facing hills and coasts. Mild in the north but rather windy, and temperatures around normal in the south.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:

Largely dry but cloudy initially on Thursday and a band of rain will move southeast across most parts, followed by sunny spells and isolated showers. Rain in the south and east on Friday, with brighter conditions and a few showers in the north and west.
