Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:

A fine start in the northeast, but cloud and rain already across much of the UK will spread to all parts, reaching northeast Scotland by the evening, after some afternoon sunshine. Drier later in the south with some brightness possible for a time.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:

Unsettled on Wednesday with a good deal of cloud, and outbreaks of rain, heavy at times, especially in the south, where it will also be windy. A breezy day on Thursday, especially in the south. Rather cloudy for most with showers or longer spells of rain in places.
