++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
It will be windy with occasional rain across northern and northwestern Scotland, but it should turn drier overnight. Away from here it should be chilly at first, then fine with long sunny or clear spells for most. However, it'll be cloudier in the far west later with some patchy rain possible.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

Monday's looking generally cloudier than today with the best of the sunshine in the east and northeast during the morning. Western parts will turn windy with some rain arriving here later, then gradually pushing eastwards across most parts through Tuesday.
