++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Some brightness around, but generally a good deal of cloud cover. The cloud bringing occasional light rain, though more particularly to the west and over higher ground. The brightest and driest weather will be towards the eastern side of both Scotland and England. Turning increasingly breezy too, especially in the west.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

Wet and windy weather will spread eastwards during the day on Tuesday, followed by brighter, showery weather from the west. This will leave Wednesday generally bright and breezy across all parts, with a scattering of light showers in the west.
