

FPUK86 EGRR 311745
Forecast for the UK.
Issued by the Met Office
at 1945 on Thursday 31 March 2005

 Valid for Broadcast at 2159 **

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow :
Scotland and Northern Ireland will remain mostly cloudy with patchy light rain. Patchy rain in northwest England will die out with fog and low cloud elsewhere lifting and breaking to give sunny spells,
the best of the sunshine inland.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

Any rain across northern Scotland will soon die out on Saturday with fog and low cloud elsewhere clearing to sunny spells. Feeling warm inland.

Sunday will start dry in many areas, with fog and low cloud clearing to sunny intervals. Cloud will increase from the west and south to bring showery outbreaks of rain, heavy and persistent at times in the west and northwest.
