++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Generally dry with some sunshine across Scotland and much of N.Ireland, although some early low cloud is likely. Central and northern England, Wales and southernmost N.Ireland will be mostly cloudy with occasional light rain. Largely dry over southern England with occasional sunshine but scattered, sometimes heavy, showers will develop during the afternoon. Rather cold and breezy generally.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

Much of England and Wales will stay cloudy with showers, some heavy, or spells of rain, however elsewhere should be drier and brighter on Monday. That cloud and rain will spread further north on Tuesday though. Temperatures rising to just above normal.
