

Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0700 on Sunday 15 Jul 2012

++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
Most areas will see some bright or sunny intervals today, and although scattered showers will develop, most places will remain dry. Scotland will be wet and windy today, especially in the west. Cloud and rain will then spread across much of England, Wales and Northern Ireland tonight, and rain will continue over Scotland. It will become breezy in all areas.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

It will be rather cloudy and windy with outbreaks of rain, this most persistent and locally heavy rain in the west. The best of any brightness will be in Scotland, and to the east of high ground elsewhere. Remaining breezy.
