Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Overcast and damp in the north and west of both Scotland and Northern Ireland, and similar across much of England and Wales. The best of the dry, brighter weather, with some sunny spells, will be over eastern parts of Northern Ireland, southern Scotland and northwest England.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:
A good deal of cloud continuing over most central and eastern parts, with a little light rain or drizzle here and there. The best of the brighter conditions and the most sunshine will continue to be over western Wales, northwest England and some western parts of Scotland.
