

Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0700 on Sunday 01 Apr 2012

++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
It will be a cloudy day across northern Scotland with outbreaks of rain which will spread into central parts overnight. It will also become cloudy across other northern parts of the UK with the prospect of a few light showers. Otherwise it will be a largely fine day leading into a clear, chilly night.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

Most places will be cloudy with a few showers on Monday. However it will become much colder and windier across the UK on Tuesday as outbreaks of rain spread south. This rain is likely to turn to sleet or snow before it clears, particularly over hills.
