Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Friday will be another chilly day with a few more sleet and snow showers in the east, giving small accumulations on hills. Elsewhere, it will stay dry and cloudy, except for Scotland and the far west of Wales and England, where there will be sunshine. However, even there it will feel cold.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:
The weekend will stay cold and cloudy over most parts. The brisk east wind will make it feel very cold everywhere. Again most places will stay dry but there will be a few showers, mainly in the east, and these will be wintry at times.
