++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
A band of cloud and rain will gradually spread from southwestern parts of the UK into much of northern England, Northern Ireland and eventually southern Scotland. Elsewhere there will be a mixture of sunshine and occasionally heavy and thundery showers and it will be rather windy across southern parts of the UK, particularly southwest England and southern Wales.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:
It will remain generally unsettled with the mixture of sunny spells and showers continuing. These showers will be heaviest and most frequent across northwestern parts, whereas many southern areas will see drier and brighter conditions becoming increasingly dominant into Sunday.
