Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Most parts of the United Kingdom will see some sunshine on Monday, although cloud may take some time to clear back to the coast in northeastern areas. It will be hot and humid in the sunshine, especially in central and southern areas, with a risk of thunderstorms breaking out during the afternoon and evening.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

It will be hot and humid with some sunshine at first, before thundery downpours spread erratically northeastwards across many areas on Tuesday and Wednesday. Some longer spells of heavy rain are possible in places. Somewhat fresher conditions will follow into the southwest later.
