++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
A mixture of sunny spells and blustery showers is expected across all parts. Some heavy showers are likely perhaps with hail, and showers will be wintry over hills too, and possibly to lower-levels across Scotland. Eastern parts will see the driest, sunniest conditions. It will be breezy with some strong gusts.

Outlook for Monday and Tuesday:

Very strong, potentially damaging, winds are likely on Monday with widespread gale or severe gale force southerly winds, turning more westerly later. Rain is also expected, heavy at times, followed from the west by showers. Windy again on Tuesday some dry spells and outbreaks of light rain at times.
