Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Wednesday will be a wet day across Wales, and central and southern England with periods of locally heavy rain, although this rain will push into northern England through the afternoon. Drier and brighter across Northern Ireland, although rain will spread here later, and Scotland will see the odd shower.

Outlook for Thursday and Friday:
Rain will push north across Scotland and Northern Ireland during Thursday, whilst elsewhere will see sunny spells and scattered showers. Rather cloudy with spells of rain and drizzle across Scotland on Friday, elsewhere variable cloud and showers, some possibly heavy and thundery.
