Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Outbreaks of heavy rain across southeastern England should gradually clear away, clearing Kent by mid afternoon. Otherwise, sunshine and showers, with some of the showers becoming heavy with a risk of thunder. It will be a cool day, and become increasingly windy in the south and southwest.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:
Sunshine and showers for Wednesday with some of the showers becoming heavy, prolonged and blustery with a risk of thunder. Windy too, especially in the south and southwest. After a quieter day on Thursday, further very wet and windy weather will sweep eastwards across all areas. It will remain chilly.
