++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Rain will be clearing northern parts of Scotland and Northern Ireland through the day, with blustery showers following on behind. Strong to gales force winds affecting the far north-west. The showers will be merging into longer periods of rain later, particularly across Northern Ireland. Mainly dry with sunny spells elsewhere.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:
Saturday will see a mixture of sunny spells and scattered showers across Scotland and Northern Ireland, where they are likely to be heavy at times. Drier elsewhere, with sunny spells across England and Wales. Further rain will be spreading in from the south-west during Sunday.
