Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be a colder day than of late for all parts, the cold feel emphasised by brisk winds. A day of sunny spells and showers, the showers heavy at times, with hail and thunder, and wintry in places, mainly northern hills. Showers may merge into more persistent rain and hill snow later in the evening.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

Staying colder and showery into Saturday, some of the showers heavy, again hail and thunder are possible, and wintry over hills. The showers should then gradually ease from the west during Sunday, with lengthy sunny spells. Windy with risk of gales, mostly around coasts.
