

Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0700 on Monday 06 Oct 2008

++ Valid for broadcast at 0858

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom until dawn tomorrow:
Central and eastern parts will start bright but also cold with patchy fog.
Northern Ireland and the Southwest will begin cloudy with a few light showers.
This cloudy weather will spread east across all parts by the end of the day.
Some heavy and more persistent rain will spread east overnight.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

Tuesday will start cloudy with outbreaks of heavy rain. Brighter weather should gradually spread from the west during the day but with the risk of some heavy showers. The showers will die out overnight to give most parts a dry and sunny day on Wednesday.
