Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Sunshine and showers are expected across much of the country. The showers will be heavy and frequent in the morning but will gradually ease, leaving a pleasant and dry afternoon. Across Scotland it will be a cloudy day with some light rain in the far north. Maximum temperature 19 °C.

Outlook for Saturday and Sunday:

Rain and strong winds will affect all but the extreme southeast on Saturday, the rain will be heavy at times, especially on hills in the west. Overnight this rain will clear away to the southeast of the UK leaving sunshine and some blustery showers across the UK on Sunday.
