Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:

A fine start for many with plenty of sunshine, although cloudier across the far northeast and far southwest of the UK. During the morning it'll turn increasingly cloudy from the southwest, with rain following into many western and central parts by afternoon. Staying drier in eastern England and parts of Scotland with some warm sunny spells.

Outlook for Tuesday and Wednesday:

Rain, occasionally heavy, will gradually clear out of southeast England and the Northern Isles during Tuesday. Elsewhere there'll be brightening skies with scattered showers, some of which are likely to turn heavy and thundery. Wednesday will be breezy and cooler, with sunshine and showers.
