Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
A rather cloudy day in the south with rain at times, although this will tend to ease later. Otherwise, a chilly easterly wind developing across most parts, with a mixture of some bright or sunny spells and scattered showers, perhaps wintry across the higher ground.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:
Staying rather cloudy Wednesday with outbreaks of rain, sleet and hill snow across northeastern parts of the UK. Elsewhere, some bright or sunny spells developing but further rain spreading into the southwest later. Remaining unsettled on Thursday with showers or longer spells of rain affecting most parts, with some hill snow in the north.
